SKILLS

🧩 Data Massive
As a Computer Science student with a Statistics minor, I can apply models in large scale data with efficient algorithms. Besides the accuracy of algorithms, I am also concerned with efficiency.

📟 Coding
I am enrolled in Tsinghua Yao Class and won scholarships each year. I am familiar with Python, R, and C++. I am also passionate about learning new programming languages.

✈ Open-Minded and Global Experiences
Instead of just sight-seeing, I love talking to the local people around the world. I have been to Nepal, Sri Lanka, Egypt, the USA, Singapore, and Turkey during my undergraduate program. I did several fields, such as investigating poverty and big data in Guizhou. Activities like BRICS Youth Forum and IMUSE have provided me a broad view of the global affairs.

📞 Communication
I am an active member of the Tsinghua Association of Student International Communication (ASIC) who has participated in many international activities. I have participated in many diplomatic events as a representative of China/Tsinghua. I am learning Spanish now.
